- Supervised Independent Living

Supervised Independent Living

Supervised Independent Living (SIL) is a voluntary program under Extended Foster Care. The contracted placement settings allow eligible young adults to reside in a less restrictive, non-traditional living arrangement while continuing to receive casework and support service to help them become more independent and self-sufficient.

SIL settings can include:

- Shared Housing
- Apartments
- Non-College Dorms
- College Dorms
- Host Homes

TEXAS

and Protective Services

Child Protective Services

Supervised Independent Living (SIL) Con't

SIL is available for young adults who can:

- Demonstrate a reasonable level of maturity and ability to manage the expectations required in an SIL setting with no direct supervision and minimal case management
- Meet the eligibility requirements for Extended Foster Care.

Major Goals of the SIL Program

- ✓ Provide a supportive, safe living environment for individuals who have aged out of foster care and ready to meet their own needs.
- ✓ Provide financial support for participants in the form of housing, food, funding for hygiene products and cell phone services.
